Terms of use

All information available on the open data server of HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. (Meteorological Database) and on its website is protected by copyright.

Meteorological measurement data and information available in the Meteorological Database and downloaded from it may be used freely and free of charge under the following conditions:

- a.) The downloaded data can only be freely used without any modifications;
- b.) The purpose or manner of using the data must not harm the reputation of HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt., and the data must not be used for any unlawful purpose or in any unlawful manner;
- c.) The source of the data, HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt., must be cited upon use.

Any changes made to the data are only permitted with HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt.'s prior and written consent. HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. has the right to deny this consent with justification. If HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. does not approve these changes to the data, their use is not permitted.

If HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. notices that the manner or purpose in which the data is being used damages or may damage the reputation of HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt., it can request the user to terminate the use or modify how the data is used. The user is obligated to comply with the terms of HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt.'s request.

When using the data freely, the User is required to cite the source (HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt.) according to the following:

"Database: Meteorological Database, HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt."

The obligation to indicate the source applies to all data, meteorological data and other services of HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. that are used without change. Source references should be included even if the data are only partially displayed, if simple mathematical operations are used to derive results from them (averages, sums, etc.), or if only the data format has been changed.

Warnings and alerts for the protection of life and property, as well as aviation meteorology forecasts and messages issued by HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. can only be used and disseminated WITHOUT ANY MODIFICATION.

In cases involving substantial transformation, processing, production of new information or any other adaptation, HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. must be mentioned in a central reference list or imprint.

Examples of the indication of changes in available data and information in the Meteorological Database:

- "Database: Meteorological Database, HUNGAROMET NONPROFIT ZRT., graphically reproduced data"
 - "Database: Meteorological Database, HUNGAROMET NONPROFIT ZRT., averaged values"
 - "Database: Meteorological Database, HUNGAROMET NONPROFIT ZRT., with own elements added "
 - "Database: Meteorological Database, HUNGAROMET NONPROFIT ZRT., with own intellectual contributions", etc.

If the data or information stored in the Meteorological Database managed by HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. is used or transformed in a way that is not appropriate for its intended purpose, the source citation must be removed. This particularly applies to weather hazard warnings not transmitted by HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt., for which HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. has no guarantee or control over their delivery to all users continuously and without delay.

In the case of warnings, HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt. must be cited as the source in accordance with the above provisions as well. When using maps produced by HungaroMet Nonprofit Zrt., it is not permitted to crop or remove the logo or company name.
